COFFEE

How much the word is abused!
 And how many indescribable mixtures it is forced to falter!
 It cannot know all of them! You readers want a choice and a real Java and Mocha Coffee, or perhaps a Maracaibo or Rio!

We give this department of our trade strict attention and can furnish the best in the market.

We offer some French Prunes that are very difficult to find. They run 30 to the pound.

A few cases of California Olive Oil, bought direct from the maker. For nearly a year we have sold both California Oil and California Olives.

An extra (Souchong) or English Breakfast Tea.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.
 Thursday, May 2, comes the famous Harrigan company, presenting "The Major." Some years ago this humorous comedy had a big run at the Harrigan Theater Comique. The revival last winter also proved to be a great success. There is something so timely and witty in the play that it is not surprising that it should be the best of this clever humorist's productions.
 The types of characters seen on Harrigan's stage are innumerable, yet withal everyone may be found in the lower stratum of New York life. In all the works of this clever author and actor, he has eliminated everything objectionable, preferring rather to enable the lowly and depending for his material on the native wit and humorous vanities of the uneducated classes.
 The music of "The Major" is probably the best Dave Brabham ever composed.
 Sales of seats opens on Monday.

Roland Reed will appear in "The Politician" on next week Saturday night.

Grand Opera House.
 "A Run on the Bank," of which Ward and Vokes are the particular stars, pleased another large audience last night and all who saw it found it immensely amusing. While the stars are generally in evidence and contribute the largest part of the fun by their original methods—methods which many others have imitated—there are also a number of other good entertainers in the company. Among these are Charles Johnson, H. C. Blaney, Mark Sullivan, Al Ballman and Tony Williams. There are dances and singing, too, by the young women and a fine dancing specialty by Nellie Daly, who comes of a family of dancers. T. Wilmot Eckhart and Miss Emma Berg sang several duets with excellent method. Miss Gilberte Leacock made a very dashing book agent. Others in the company are Marguerite Daly Vokes, Inez Roe, Clara Belle and Delusley—a lot of bright and pretty girls. It will be repeated this afternoon and evening.

Denman Thompson's beautiful play,
 "The Two Sisters," which will be presented the first three days next week is as much superior to his other great success, "The Old Homestead," as was Booth to a cheap theater tragedian.
 There is no reason in the world why "The Two Sisters" should not more than duplicate the phenomenal run of "The Old Homestead."

Fall's Wonderful Theater.
 The last appearance of Don Juan Calcedo in his marvelous exhibition on the wire at the Wonderland will be made to-night. Twice more he can be seen, once this afternoon and once this evening, after which he will not again be seen in New Haven, as he soon returns to Europe for an indefinite stay. The excellent artists who are supporting also bid adieu to New Haven to-night. It is interesting, however, to note that next week's chief attraction is a great one. The beautiful Creole girls who made such a tremendous sensation in "Little Christopher" by their rare beauty and their magnificent spectacular Moroccan, will appear all the week, giving their fairly spectacle with the same wealth of elaborate electrical effect that distinguished its production in New York.

Seventy-Sixth Anniversary Celebrated at the Connecticut Odd Fellows' Home.
 New London, April 26.—The twenty-sixth anniversary of Odd Fellowship in the United States was celebrated this afternoon and evening at Fairview, Odd Fellows Home, by Fairview, Pequot and Mohegan lodges of that order. The grand officers of the state attended. Quite a number of other members of the order from out of town came to attend the exercises.

The visitors were driven to the ferry and taken across the river to Groton, where carriages took them to Fairview.
 The Third Regiment band furnished music for the occasion. About 200 were present. To-night the grand officers attended the celebration of the fifth anniversary of Mohegan lodge.
